HONOR for our country

SPIRIT for our teams

LOYALTY to our school

The Cadet staff and Mac Cadet have prepared the pages of this book, hoping to portray for you the joys, the ambitions, the endeavors, the honors, and the activities of your high school life. Our wish is that each of you will cherish many happy memories of your days at MacArthur High School for the school year of 1959-1960, and that this book will ever serve to recall the friends of those days and the part that our school has played in your futures.

Many things make MacArthur outstanding, but daily routine is the real measure of our school's quality
. . . . Wherever we are . . .

. . . in the classroom

. . . in the lab

. . . in the shop

. . . in the kitchen

. . . in social studies

. . . in P.E. class

. . . in the library

. . . we are learning and preparing for the future

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Mr. Lester Grant
Superintendent of Schools

Mr. Norman Gore
Assistant Superintendent

Ted Bates, Rev. David E. Ready,
Mrs. Ida Coppenbarger

Douglas MacArthur High School opened its doors in September, 1957. In the short time from that date until this spring of 1960, the students at MacArthur High School have developed a fine spirit of conduct, cooperation, and loyalty. This has been possible because of the fine work of those students who graduated in 1958 and 1959, those students graduating this year, and those students who are underclassmen. Staff members, too, have played key roles in the direction and guidance of this development.

To both students and faculty I express my sincere appreciation. Let us who remain work for the perpetuation of the best in all of the fine traditions that have been started.

MacArihur came through with its first winning season, boasting a 6 and 3 record. Our first five games consisted of only one loss. We lost the next two but triumphed in the last two. The team should be highly commended for its considerable improvement. We hope that we will have an even better season next year, although it must be regarded with optimism.

Dave Wells, a junior at Arthur, was elected president of the Champaign District Association of Student Councils at the district conference in Champaign. Approximately four hundred students from all over Champaign area attended the conference in which they elected new officers, discussed how to improve each individual school's Student Council, developed new ideas and made plans for making projects.

The other three officers elected were Vicky Cohn of St. Decatur, vice-president; Kay Behrens, secretary; Nancy Arnold of Danville, treasurer.

Student Council representatives from all five Decatur schools left for Chambliss at two buses early in the morning and arrived back around five-thirty.

The theme of the event was "Your Student Dead or Alive." A senior at Step 1 presided at the cor-

With the regular campaign nearly half over, the high schools are experiencing varied amounts of success.

Stephen Decatur stands as the top team in town won-lost department. They have won twelve straight without a defeat. The Reds of play seems to be to opponents to death. With speedsters as Al Richardson, Gather Wansley at guard, Jim Mason, Jim Risby, Sidney on the front. Reds have a very effective combination. Sidney is third among the city's individual scorers. Stephen Decatur has probably set the on the fifteen game streak which is the most games a Stephen Decatur team has ever won in a row. At the rate the Reds are moving, the record could be broken this year. Stephen Decatur is currently ranked eighth in the AP weekly poll of downstate prep basketball teams.

Running second in standings with (not including game) is MacArthur. The Generals boast team good defense. Coach Moulins' crew has been especially tough on the As of last week have been undefeated since the Collins last season. The meet a formidable Wells tonight.

Meet Eisenhower Wrestlers Tomorrow

The MacArthur matmen seem to have a fine chance to duplicate last season's perfect dual meet record. To date, the wrestlers have handily won all four of their dual meets.

The MacArthur matmen will be out to extend their winning streak when they meet Eisenhower on January 23. The meet will be at Eisenhower Gym at 10:00 A.M.

The Eisenhower team was among the MacArthur victims last year.

The Generals downed Stephen Decatur by a score of 39-11. Terry Cooper, Joe Taylor, and Sam Williams won their matches by pins in the 120, 145, and 180 pound classes respectively. George Riviere and Gary Hunt won their matches by decisions in the 154 and 165 pound weight classes.

Keith Lewis was the high scorer for the Generals with ten field goals and three free throws good for twenty-three points. Bob Lyon added ten points on five fielders.

GENERALS CUFF JACKSONVILLE

MacArthur defeated Jacksonville for the first time in three seasons as the Generals blasted the Crimson 36-42.

The Generals jumped off to a 11-5 first quarter lead and were never seriously threatened.

The win was the second in a row for MacArthur, and the loss the ninth without victory for Jacksonville. Previously, the Crimson had won ten games and lost only two in competition against Decatur teams during the past three years.

Bob Lyon, Keith Lewis, and Dick Holt paced the balanced MacArthur scoring attack. Lyon totaled 16 points, Lewis 12, and Holt 10.

Lyon and Lewis also controlled the rebounding with boards.

MacArthur was aided by free-throw passing on the part of Jacksonville club, and the Generals often turned miscues into easy baskets.

Dear Ruth is a comedy about the trials and tribulations of a family that has two daughters. Everything has gone fine for Ruth and her fiance until a Lt. Bill Seawright returns home from Europe. Thanks to Miriam, who has been writing letters to Bill under her sister's name, Ruth finds that she has two men equally in love with her. After some hilarious events, true love wins and Bill and Ruth are married.

As we leave these hallowed halls
we remember our high school years,
In caps and gowns so solemn, our eyes cloud up with tears;
For we remember all the fun we had
at dear old Mac,
And all the friends we made there—loyalty we'll never lack.
Remembering the games we saw—
Assemblies and dances too,
How can we ever forget dear old Mac and you?

—Munsie

Hail to thee MacArthur
Our loyalty is true.
We will cherish always
The silver and the blue.
Friendship never failing
Love and honor too.
Hail our Alma Mater
Memories are of you.
